2. Primary Means of Communication and Expectations

- All team members will be expected to monitor slack roughly once or twice a day in order to observe any urgent announcements
- If anyone anticipate any problems meeting a deadline or completing a task, proactively communicate it.

3. Scheduling Meetings

- All team members are expected to fill out lettuce-meets with their availability. If a team member is unavailable for a meeting, they are expected to inform a team leader in advance.
- All team members should avoid being late for meetings.
- The team will schedule a minimum of one meeting per week.

4. General Responsibilities for All Team Members

- All team members are expected to react (with an emoji or written response) to announcements to confirm their participation/understanding.
- No member of the team shall commit directly to main.
- Pull requests should be reviewed and the code within them approved before a new branch is merged with main.

- In the case where a member cannot make a meeting or cannot finish a task on time, let the team know as soon as possible
- All team members should treat each other with respect and maintain a friendly atmosphere.

5. Specific Team Member Responsibilities/Deadlines*
